the location

Heron Road is a terraced street with a strong community feel, set in the vibrant neighbourhood of Easton. The area is home to a range independent eateries and shops nearby, including Radical Roasters and the Sweet Mart on St Marks Road. Also close by are No 12 Café, the Garden of Easton, the Public Market and the Greenbank pub. The neighbourhood is well connected by bike, car, train and bus. Transport links include Stapleton Road train station and the Bristol to Bath cycle path. There are lots of green spaces close by with Eastville park, Greenbank cemetery and St George's park within walking distance, along with riverside walks along the Frome valley.

Early viewing advised!

just a thought...

Sometimes quoted as "the happiest place in Bristol to live" this well proportioned home is set close to the heart of buzzing Easton. A rare opportunity not to be missed!
