🏠 EPC Rating

A truly delightful one double bedroom period apartment set within this landmark Victorian building. Converted by well respected local developers Gaigers in 2013, this stylish home benefits from underfloor heating (via an Air Source Heat Pump), a telephone entry system and reclaimed oak veneer flooring.

Internally a communal entrance hall has stairs rising to all floors, with this apartment being located on the 1st floor. The contemporary layout includes a bespoke kitchen by 'Devizes Fine Kitchens' with a range of quality 'Bosch' appliances and solid granite worktops. The incredibly light and airy open plan living/dining area has exposed steel beams and brick walling. The double bedroom benefits from an en suite shower room with tiled flooring, quality sanitary ware and a corner shower.

Outside, the property has one allocated parking spaces and a communal bin store. Set behind The Keep is a lovely big park and access on to the Kennet and Avon canal tow path, for wonderful waterside walks back in to town.

This apartment would be ideal for a first time buyer as well as anyone downsizing. Alternatively, this would make a great 'buy to let' opportunity with an estimated rental income of £900pcm. An early viewing is strong recommended to avoid disappointment.
