Lawson Rose are delighted to bring to the market this three-bedroom, semi-detached property, ideally positioned within a popular pocket of PO4, close to local amenities, Fratton Train Station and benefitting from the rare advantage of a garage — a true rarity for the area. This generous space is filled with natural light and features double sliding doors that open out onto the charming, low-maintenance rear garden, creating a pleasant connection between indoor and outdoor living. The fitted kitchen can be accessed from both the hallway and the living space, providing a practical layout and further scope for modernisation or reconfiguration if desired. The first floor offers three good-sized bedrooms, one of which as a built-in wardrobe, alongside a fitted bathroom and a separate W.C, adding to the home's family-friendly appeal. Externally, the rear garden is designed for ease of maintenance and benefits from side pedestrian access to the road, as well as an outside W.C. The garage is located just a few doors down from the property and is accessed via Empshott Road, offering valuable secure storage or parking.
