create an incredible open-plan space. Featuring a range of fitted wall and floor units, a stunning gas range oven, and wooden worktops, this kitchen is both stylish and functional, with ample space for a dining table & chairs ideal for entertaining. Ascending to the first floor, the front of the property hosts a spacious double bedroom with plenty of natural light. Centrally located off the landing is the beautifully designed family bathroom, complete with a large walk-in shower, a handmade vanity unit, and a WC, all finished to an exceptional standard. To the rear, above the kitchen extension, is the showstopping master suite a true sanctuary featuring an exposed stone wall as a backdrop to a luxurious roll-top bath, offering the ultimate in relaxation. The second floor reveals another generous double bedroom, currently presented as a twin room, retaining its original character with a charming feature fireplace. A separate WC and basin on this floor add to the convenience, making it an ideal space for guests. Externally, the property benefits from a side entrance leading to a delightful courtyard garden, complete with additional storage in the form of original coal sheds at the rear. In summary, Hurfords are thrilled to bring this exceptional home to market. With its flawless finish, charming period features, and modern updates, this is a rare find that won't be available for long. Viewing is highly recommended to truly appreciate everything this stunning home has to offer.
