COUNTRY

Located in the charming area of Old Town, Hastings with a vibrant local community, quaint shops, and delightful eateries. The nearby sea front with its stunning views also has the old fishing huts, Jerwood Gallery, The Stage and the East Hill as well as the opportunity for leisurely walks along the beach.

Believed to be the oldest building in the historic Old Town of Hastings, The Old Court Hall is thought to have been constructed in 1450 and is Grade II Listed. The property has a wealth of period features to include an impressive King post in the vaulted bedroom, stunning inglenook fireplaces, exposed floorboards, beams and carved gargoyle on the front timber elevation.

Ground floor

The kitchen is fitted with a good range of units with electric hob, cooker under and extractor fan over. In addition there is a rustic wooden dresser and a terracotta tiled floor adds warmth, while a window above the sink overlooks the courtyard providing natural light.

The dining room has exposed beams and large stone fireplace.

The living room has exposed beams, a striking stone and brick fireplace, wooden floorboards and large leaded windows to the front.

The cloakroom comprises, w.c and a wall-mounted hand basin.

First floor

Bedroom 1 is the old Court Hall and has an impressive vaulted ceiling and exposed beams with King post, multiple leaded windows and brick fireplace. Stairs down to the living room.

Bedroom 2 has a stone fireplace, built in cupboard, narrow stairs down to the dining room and additional door with stairs down to the kitchen. An interconnecting door also provides access to a small inner landing with ladder style stairs to an attic room (sloping ceilings) providing useful storage or study.

Bedroom 3 has a built in cupboard and window overlooking the courtyard.

Shower room comprising shower cubicle, w.c and wash hand basin.

Outside

The sheltered yet sunny courtyard garden provides a useful outdoor space paved with stone and bordered by lush greenery and climbing plants.
