41 Tudor Gardens

Merlins Bridge, Haverfordwest

Externally, the property benefits from a private, enclosed rear garden, which offers scope for landscaping and improvement. A paved area runs adjacent to the rear elevation of the house, providing a practical space for outdoor seating or entertaining. Beyond the paved section, the garden extends to a currently overgrown lawn area, bordered by fencing to ensure privacy and security. The outdoor space presents an opportunity for prospective owners to create a garden tailored to their needs, whether for family use, gardening, or leisure. The property also features a driveway providing off-road parking, and there is access to a detached garage for additional vehicle storage or utility purposes. The overall plot is of a manageable size, suitable for those seeking outside space without excessive maintenance demands. The location offers convenient access to local amenities, schools, and transport links, supporting both family life and commuter requirements.

This four bedroom detached house presents a well-proportioned and versatile family home situated within a residential setting. The property is arranged over two floors and offers a practical layout designed to accommodate a range of living requirements. The ground floor comprises an entrance hall leading to a spacious reception room, a separate dining room/reception room, and a kitchen with space for appliances and storage and boasts a utility room. There is also a ground floor cloakroom. Upstairs, the property provides four bedrooms, one with an en-suite, each benefiting from natural light, alongside a family bathroom fitted. The house is constructed with traditional materials, featuring double glazed windows and gas central heating throughout. The property is offered with vacant possession and is considered suitable for purchasers seeking a home to update and personalise according to their preferences.
