Southport's Estate Agent

This is a rare opportunity to acquire not just one, but two separately titled homes on a single plot. The main residence, 31 Scarisbrick New Road, is an elegant, double-fronted semi-detached family home arranged over two floors. Inside, you'll find beautifully presented reception rooms with log burner, a sleek modern kitchen leading down to a bright garden room, and a ground-floor shower room. The first floor boasts five well-proportioned bedrooms, one of which is thoughtfully arranged as home office, alongside a contemporary family bathroom and a separate WC, offering both flexibility and convenience for modern living. The large, shared rear garden is a true gem, with lawn, patio, and lush borders. Adjoining is 31A, a separate two-floor semi-detached house with its own private entrance. It features reception rooms, a kitchen, a ground-floor shower room, plus two bedrooms upstairs, perfect for independent living, whether for a relative, a teenager, or even potential rental income. Both properties are to be sold together, offering endless possibilities. All this is just moments from Southport town centre, with shops, restaurants, top schools, and commuter links to Liverpool and Manchester. It's a truly unique offering!
