Belvedere is a charming mid-terrace period home retaining a wealth of original features. Situated in a highly sought-after location, close to local shops, Chorleywood station, and popular schools, this three bedroom home is offered for sale with no onward chain.

The attractive rose-filled front garden leads via a pathway to a solid wood front door beneath a covered porch.

The welcoming entrance hall provides access to two reception rooms and the staircase to the first floor.

The elegant sitting room features a beautiful original cast-iron fireplace with a decorative tiled surround. A large bay with sash windows floods the room with natural light, creating a bright and inviting living space.

A separate dining room benefits from a built-in full-height storage cupboard and leads through to the dual-aspect kitchen/breakfast room. The kitchen is fitted with a range of limed oak wall and base units and includes a Neff electric oven, gas hob with extractor hood, integrated fridge/freezer, and washing machine. A generous walk-in cupboard provides excellent additional storage, and there is a door to the garden. On the first floor are two double bedrooms and a well-proportioned single bedroom. Two of the bedrooms retain their original decorative fireplaces, adding further character to the property.

The family bathroom is fitted with a white suite and includes a shower over the bath.

Outside, the delightful rear garden offers a patio adjoining the house, a lawn, and an abundance of mature planting. A garden shed and rear gate provide convenient access via a pathway shared with neighbouring properties.

Resident permit parking is available on the road.

This characterful home presents a rare opportunity to acquire a period property in an exceptionally convenient and desirable location, with scope to further enhance and extend (subject to planning permission).

LOCATION

Chorleywood is a popular place to live, offering the perfect combination of beautiful countryside with close proximity to central London. As well as excellent rail links on both the Metropolitan Line into the city and Chiltern Line to Marylebone, there's also easy access to the M25 at Junctions 17 and 18. Heathrow is also close by.

Sought-after schooling for all ages, both state and private, is just one reason families choose to live here, and the village centre offers a selection of independent shops and cafes. Leisure facilities include Chorleywood Common with almost 200 acres of woodland and grassland. The Chorleywood House Estate is a nature reserve with ancient woodland and footpaths to the beautiful River Chess. In addition, there are clubs for football, cricket golf and tennis for all ages.
