The Olde House

96 Manor Road, Deal

A beautifully refurbished Grade II Listed family home boasting an abundance of character features, a delightful garden and private parking.

Situation

The Olde House is nestled among a collection of historic and charming homes, with the Church of St. Leonard at the corner. This area of Manor Road, along with the nearby Rectory Road, is one of the oldest parts of Upper Deal and is part of a Conservation Area, closely linked to Tormore School. Conveniently located, this setting offers easy access to the town's amenities and provides a direct route to the historic Cinque Port of Sandwich. The seafront is just a short distance away, featuring a two-mile pebble beach, a popular promenade, and a cycle path, with both Walmer and Deal castles along the way. Deal town centre is renowned for its award-winning High Street, offering a lively atmosphere with a variety of unique independent shops and beloved eateries. The mainline railway station provides regular services to Dover and the Javelin high-speed link to London St Pancras.

The Property

The Olde House is an impressive Grade II Listed family home, believed to date back to the Queen Anne period, and has been thoughtfully refurbished throughout, using a fresh, modern, minimalist palette that beautifully highlights the abundance of original character features, including extensive timber panelling and a striking inglenook fireplace among the many original fireplaces throughout the home. The spacious accommodation is spread across three floors, with a classic double-fronted layout offering four connecting reception rooms along the front elevation, complemented by a centrally positioned entrance hall. A sleek contemporary galley kitchen is accessed from the dining room and features an integrated fridge and cooking appliances, with a seamless stainless steel worktop with integral sink overlooking the garden. A long panelled hallway provides further access to the kitchen and also leads to a study with a charming Yorkshire sashed bay window that provides generous natural light, finally connecting to a practical utility/cloakroom, plus one of two dry cellar areas. A beautiful enclosed box staircase rises to the first floor, where you'll find two generous double bedrooms, which are particularly spacious, one with a contemporary ensuite shower room and the other with a dressing area. A third bedroom is currently used as a further study/home office. The second floor offers great scope for further improvement and features two additional double bedrooms, and a family bathroom, complete with a free-standing roll-top bath. The property benefits from gas central heating, powered by a newly fitted boiler system with column radiators throughout. Traditional panelled sash windows are featured throughout and all have been lovingly restored.

Outside

At the rear, you'll find a delightful, enclosed private garden, featuring a series of winding pathways that connect its various sections, creating a uniquely charming outdoor space. The garden is centred around an area of lawn, bordered by mature shrubs and trees.. A set of stairs descends to the second cellar, which is perfect for a workshop or garden storage area. A pathway leads to a private, gated parking area tucked away in the rear corner, there is a new timber storage shed plus an additional space for off-street parking accessible from London Road.
