This beautifully presented upper ground floor, one bedroom period conversion flat is set on the ever-popular Clyde Road and offers a wonderful blend of character, light, and convenience - perfect for first time buyers looking to step onto the property ladder.

From the moment you walk in, the property feels bright and welcoming, with large windows allowing natural light to pour through every room. The layout is both practical and inviting, with a separate kitchen and bathroom positioned just off the entrance. To the right, you'll find a generous reception room that creates a cosy focal point, ideal for relaxing evenings or hosting friends. Double doors lead seamlessly into a spacious bedroom, giving the home an open yet private feel.

The flat is in excellent condition throughout, meaning it's ready to move straight into, and is offered to the market chain-free for a smooth purchase.

One of the standout features is the share of freehold, with no service charges or ground rent, offering both peace of mind and long-term value.

Perfectly positioned, Clyde Road is a prime residential street within easy reach of Addiscombe High Street's cafés, shops, and amenities, as well as excellent transport links and quick access into Croydon Town Centre.

A bright, characterful home in a fantastic location, early viewing is highly recommended.
