Accommodation

Please see the floor plan for room measurements details

Raised Ground Floor

A lovely period door and fanlight gives access to a charming panelled hall which runs the depth of the property through to the rear. There are two elegant reception rooms interconnected by the original oversize high arched doors. High ceilings with large sash windows flank each end, providing generous natural light and picturesque views. Both rooms have cast iron period fireplaces and matching surrounds, one fitted with a wood burning stove. A newly refitted cloak room with w.c., and wash hand basin and attractive copper feature radiator completes the accommodation on this level with staircases leading down to the lower ground floor in one direction and to the upper floors via a half landing, well lit by an over height arched sash window.

Kitchen/Dining Room

A light and spacious kitchen dining room with contemporary stainless steel units and a range cooker only enhanced by the warmth of an original brick wall. A wide sash window looks out onto a spacious stone and york paved courtyard, framed by a stunning hedge with sweet smelling flowers. Doors lead to a sizeable walk in larder cupboard, with further doors to a cosy snug with a woodburning stove, which is arguably the heart of the home and another to a sizeable store/utility room with floor to ceiling cupboards. There is also access from the latter to a semi vaulted cellarage, which provides ventilated cool storage naturally lit by a light well.

Upper Floors

First Floor

A spacious full width master bedroom with super king size bed, original restored floorboards, a pair of large sash windows with original shutters and feature fireplace. This room also benefits from a large walk in wardrobe that could be refitted with an en-suite. A very generously sized bathroom with shower, centrally placed bath, wash hand basin, w.c. and useful shelved storage.

Second Floor

The second floor landing houses three capacious floor to ceiling storage cupboards with hanging rails and shelves, and a good sized loft hatch with laddered access to a boarded loft and access to the roof. The double bedroom to the rear has wood flooring, a delightful central fireplace, cupboard and wide sash windows with far reaching views to Brandon Hill, the harbour, the city skyline and Bristol Cathedral spires. There are two further bedrooms to the front each with elegant re-furnished sash windows, and lovely views over 'The Cut' and the river banks with Ashton Court in the distance. The larger of these also boasts a pretty central fireplace and ensuite shower room.
