A beautifully presented Grade II listed two storey barn conversion, this exceptional home forms part of an attractive courtyard of similar character properties, originally the outbuildings of the historic Plas Newydd Estate. The barn has been thoughtfully transformed to offer stylish contemporary living while retaining a wealth of enhanced period features throughout.

Set in an attractive semi rural location, the barn sits just off the A4080 coastal road on the outskirts of Llanfairpwll, less than two miles away. A long private driveway leads to the courtyard, with excellent onward access to the A55 Expressway. The renowned Plas Newydd House and Gardens, owned by the National Trust and set on the shores of the Menai Strait with the Snowdonia mountains as a backdrop, lies under a quarter of a mile away.

Under a ¼ mile from Plas Newydd Historic House and Gardens, owned by the National Trust and set on the shores of the Menai Strait, amidst breathtakingly beautiful scenery and with the Snowdonia mountain range as a backdrop. The development is approached down a private tarmac road and is situated just off the A4080 coastal road.

The property is ideally placed for the A55 Expressway, which is under 5 minutes' drive away, with links onward to Bangor, Chester and the regional airports of Liverpool and Manchester. The port of Holyhead is approximately half an hour's drive away with ferry links onward to Ireland. The renowned tourist attractions of Anglesey Sea Zoo together with Foel Farm & Halen Mon, located very close to Llandwyn Beach and Newborough Warren, are only a short drive from Llyn Onn and the Snowdonia mountains are easily accessible to explore and enjoy.

The Isle of Anglesey boasts numerous other attractions, including the historic town of Beaumaris with its Castle built by Edward I, and offers wonderful coastal walks and cycling routes with many miles of stunning beaches to explore. There are also many quality restaurants and pubs throughout the island.
