Leigh Court Barns, Leigh, WR6 5LB

A stunning barn conversion of the former engine house of Leigh Court Farm with beautiful character features sat in the Leigh Conservation Area overlooking the Grade II Listed Leigh Court Barn and St Edburga's Church. The beautifully presented and styled interiors with high ceilings, exposed brick wall and original engine workings provide an exquisite country home in a wonderful semi rural location. The versatile accommodation includes on the ground floor; a large entrance hall, dual aspect living room with wood burner, separate sitting room, luxurious dining kitchen, large utility/boot room, cloakroom and a large workshop and double garage with the potential to provide further accommodation or annex. To the first floor are light and airy rooms with vaulted ceilings including; a dual aspect main bedroom with views to the barn and over open countryside, en-suite shower room, three further double bedrooms (one currently used as large study) and a luxuriously refitted main bathroom. Externally the property has a large stone chip drive with parking for numerous cars and landscaped gardens with paved seating areas. A rural location with great access to Malvern and Worcester, a real country delight.
