Offers Over £295,000

www.aitchisons.co

A fabulous opportunity to purchase this attractive stone built Grade 11 property, which is located on the outskirts of this popular Northumberland village, some ten miles from Berwick-upon-Tweed. The property is steeped in history, built around 1861 it formed part of the Church Edward the Confessor, with the ground floor being used as the classroom and the upper floor for the head teachers accommodation.

The property has huge potential for development, with the current layout having a large open plan room on the ground floor and a spacious one bedroom first floor apartment , with a large living room, a kitchen/breakfast room, a double bedroom and a shower room. The property could be converted into one large two storey dwelling, or to convert the ground floor into an apartment offering the potential to generate a further income on a rental for holiday lets. The ground floor could also be used as an office/workshop. The property has full oil fired central heating.

Lawn garden at the front and side and the large enclosed garden at the other side which has been laid to a meadow with wild flowers, potential to landscape further.

Lowick is highly sought after with excellent facilities which include a general store, two public houses, a village hall and a first school. The town of Wooler is only seven miles away and Berwick-upon-Tweed is ten miles from the village, where there is varied shopping, sports clubs, restaurants and a railway station on the main east coast line. The beautiful Northumberland coastline is a short drive away, with some of the best beaches in the country.

Viewing is recommended.
