Holton House, Soham CB7 5AQ

An exceptional Georgian-style period residence, set within magnificent mature walled gardens and offered to the market with no onward chain.

This charming and substantial home has been sympathetically enhanced by the current owners, seamlessly blending timeless character with considered modern improvements. Elegant, well-proportioned rooms are complemented by high ceilings and an abundance of original period features, creating a home of undeniable charm and distinction.

The accommodation is both generous and beautifully balanced, comprising an impressive, light-filled entrance hall, refined living and dining rooms, and a thoughtfully refitted kitchen/breakfast room designed for contemporary living. Additional practical spaces include a utility room and boot room. The property further benefits from four principal bedrooms and a stylishly refitted family bathroom.

Externally, the home is enveloped by superb, mature walled gardens, thoughtfully landscaped and richly stocked, offering a high degree of privacy and a picturesque setting. Further features include a car port, garage, and ample off-road parking.
