Offered with NO ONWARD CHAIN this bright and spacious top-floor flat enjoys a southerly aspect PRIVATE GARDEN and is situated in the sought-after residential area of Chickereil, just moments from a local pub, regular bus routes, and the scenic South West Coast Path.

With its elevated position, the property enjoys an open outlook across fields towards the Fleet, creating a wonderful sense of space and light. It benefits from its own private entrance, with stairs rising to a generous landing featuring a charming porthole window.

The lounge is a standout feature, offering tall ceilings, picture rails, and an electric fireplace. A south-facing bay window floods the room with natural light while framing attractive views. The principal bedroom mirrors this sense of scale and character, with another bay window capturing the same outlook.

The kitchen/breakfast room provides ample worktop space, a range of storage options, and a free-standing electric cooker, with room for additional appliances. A breakfast bar positioned by the window adds a practical and inviting touch.

The second bedroom, located to the rear, is also well-proportioned, while the spacious bathroom includes both a bath and separate shower, wash basin, WC, and towel radiator.

A large loft offers excellent potential for conversion (subject to planning permission), presenting an opportunity to create further living space and maximise the views.

Externally, the property benefits from allocated parking just off Chickereil Road and a sizeable private south-facing garden. Predominantly laid to lawn and bordered by mature shrubs & tree's.
