DETACHED WORKSHOP

An incredibly useful timber clad structure with varying glazing, strip lighting and exposed ply ceiling. Currently utilised by the present owner for the purposes of carpentry/woodwork but, once again, incredibly versatile in its uses, with power, light and catering for excessive dry storage requirements- a lucrative solution to those who seek workspace for labour needs and perhaps harbouring further potential for conversion to accommodation (subject to planning and consents/permissions required). To the far side of the workshop, a square opening, with step down, leads into a rear 'office area' providing work bench, further fixed glazing, three ceiling lights and glazed rear access door opening onto the:-

RAISED VERANDA/OUTDOOR WASH AND PREPARATION AREA

An intriguing addition, set to the rear of the workshop, with corrugated and pitched roof, a quaint veranda with mature crawling plants offering a natural and relaxed feel incorporating a compost WC, external and tiled shower cubicle, both sections fitted with sliding timber doors, and finally, timber work bench with Belfast sink, mixer tap and two drawer units. Exterior lighting, further timber rear access door leading to workshop.

Located to the top of the 'meadow', grassed access leads to the:-

GARDEN STUDIO/POD

Comprising of two sizeable rooms and separated with stud walling. Once again, with power and lighting. A removable structure, yet offering versatile use, as required.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

A particular highlight for 'Windmill Cottage' are it's extensive gardens and grounds which have been carefully nurtured by the current owner with varying and mature areas of lawn, specimen plants and tree , which create an oasis of varying greenery interspersed with flowers, shrubbery, together with established and gently wooded borders. The enchanting grounds extend to just over 2 acres, featuring an expansive 'meadow' which has been rewilded to the far side, helping preserve the delicacy of the natural surroundings. Undoubtedly of extreme interest for those who are keen gardeners or outdoor enthusiasts, given the overall privacy and rich diversity on offer.
