

Warren Hill Road, Kingstanding
Birmingham, B44 8ES

£250,000

Kingstanding

£250,000

This well presented 3-bedroom semi-detached house on the popular Warren Hill Road is ideal for First Time Buyers or home movers.

The property is approached via a driveway with dropped kerb and up steps to the porch which leads through to the reception hallway and through lounge which benefits from a bay window to the front, creating great potential dining space and a door to the rear leading outside. The kitchen is extended and features a sink with additional bowl looking out to the garden, space for a cooker and washing machine along with access the side passage where the boiler is also located.

Upstairs, the property benefits from three bedrooms where there are two double rooms both complete with bay windows and the rear room also includes a built-in wardrobe and feature panelling. The smaller room to the front is also a great size and the bathroom benefits from a white suite consisting of a WC, wash basin and P-shaped bath with shower over.

Outside, the garden is the star of the show and is exceptionally landscaped in a tiered fashion providing both patio and lawn areas with the top patio area offering great views of the surroundings and is an idea spot for an outdoor dining and entertainment area.

This gas centrally heated and externally double-glazed family home must be viewed to appreciate the accommodation available.
