Occupying an elevated position in the sought-after village of Llandyssil, this beautifully presented detached bungalow enjoys far-reaching countryside views and offers spacious, well-planned accommodation, complemented by generous gardens incorporating a productive vegetable patch and greenhouse, useful outbuildings and an area of woodland. Combining comfortable modern living with a peaceful rural setting, the property is just a short drive from the historic market town of Montgomery, renowned for its independent shops, cafés and eateries, while the larger towns of Welshpool and Newtown provide an even wider range of shopping, leisure and transport links. The area is well served by local primary schools, with secondary education available in Welshpool, Newtown and Bishop's Castle, making this an excellent choice for families, those looking to downsize or anyone seeking an idyllic countryside lifestyle.
