

FELDAY

6 THE FARTHINGS

WITHINGTON, GLOUCESTERSHIRE, GL54 4DF

This wonderful village house stands in an extraordinarily peaceful no through road comprising of just six detached homes adjoining open countryside situated in the popular Cotswold village of Withington, equidistant of Cheltenham, Cirencester and Gloucester. A nod to the history of this small enclave, the houses in The Farthings were constructed for Concorde pilots. Felday itself was built for Captain Norman Todd, the Senior Pilot for the British Airways Concorde fleet.

Full of charm and personality, originally dating from the 1970s and significantly enlarged and updated by the present owners in the last ten years or so, the property offers extremely versatile and on the ground floor, predominantly open plan living accommodation approaching 3000 sq.ft.

Entering the property the layout flows seamlessly from the welcoming reception hall which has a cloakroom off, to the superb 32' kitchen/dining room which is one of the properties many features offering generous storage, an island unit with a breakfast bar, window seat to enjoy the views, integrated appliances including Neff double ovens, double fridge/freezer, a wine fridge, dishwasher, coffee machine and microwave complemented by granite work surfaces and an instant hot water tap. Adjoining the kitchen/dining room there is a versatile garden/reading/snug or formal second dining room with lovely views over the garden which in turn leads to the sitting room which benefitting from an open fire with a stone surround creating an attractive focal point in the room.

Noteworthy the property benefits from underfloor heating throughout the entirety of the ground floor giving the property a cosy feel.

On the first floor off a bright and airy landing are five bedrooms, four of which are generous doubles, one of which is presently utilised as a study/library and three contemporary bath/shower rooms, one being an en-suite to the principal bedroom and the other works on a 'Jack and Jill' arrangement serving two bedrooms.

Externally the property benefits from a driveway providing off road parking for 3/4 vehicles, a double garage, part of which has been converted into a utility area and gardens that wrap around the property and are predominantly south facing initially laid to paved terracing with areas of manicured lawns with numerous extremely well stocked flower and shrub borders filled with a number of rare herbaceous plants and several pollarded specimen trees.
