Thornhurst Avenue
Quinton

Property Description

Situated within a popular, quiet and tree lined road cul de sac in Quinton, this immaculately presented two bedroom end terrace home offers modern and spacious accommodation throughout. The property comprises of; a contemporary open plan kitchen offering generous workspace and storage, seamlessly flowing into the welcoming living area. Upstairs, you'll find two double bedrooms and a fresh, modern first floor bathroom.

One of the standout features of this property is its larger-than-average rear garden – a rare find in this location. Beautifully maintained and offering plenty of space for relaxation, play or outdoor dining, the garden also benefits from a charming summer house, ideal for use as a home office, hobby space or tranquil retreat.

Thornhurst Avenue is surrounded by a selection of schools, transport links and local shopping facilities.

From the moment you arrive, the appeal of the location is undeniable. The property sits gracefully within its plot, framed by well-kept surroundings and uninterrupted outlooks that capture changing skies and natural beauty throughout the seasons. Mornings are greeted with soft light filtering across the views, while evenings offer a peaceful backdrop perfect for unwinding.

The cul-de-sac itself fosters a welcoming community atmosphere, ideal for families and those seeking a safe, low-traffic environment. With no through road, the setting enhances both privacy and security, making it perfect for children to play and for residents to enjoy the calm ambiance.
