A well-established end-of-terrace family home offering well-proportioned accommodation, a low-maintenance rear garden, and the valuable benefit of off-road parking. The property forms part of a select and highly convenient development just off Hills Road, within close proximity to Cambridge Station, Addenbrooke's Hospital, and the city centre.

LOCATION

Elsworth Place is a quiet residential cul-de-sac situated just off Hills Road in southeast Cambridge, offering a peaceful setting within easy reach of the city's key amenities. The street benefits from excellent accessibility: Cambridge Railway Station is a short walk away, providing fast connections to London and regional destinations, and multiple bus routes run along Hills Road, enabling convenient travel across the city. The area is well served by local shops, cafes and services, including those clustered around Hills Road and the nearby leisure and retail developments at Cambridge Leisure Park. Educational institutions such as Hills Road Sixth Form College and Homerton College are close by, and Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Biomedical Campus are readily accessible via direct transport links. Elsworth Place combines residential tranquility with strong connectivity and proximity to a broad range of urban amenities.
