Some locations simply make life easier, and Tennyson Avenue is one of them.

With local schools nearby, the beautiful Walks Park just moments away, and the town centre and train station all within easy reach, it's a setting that naturally fits around modern life. Add in generous living spaces, a private garden and the potential for off-road parking, and it's easy to see why this beautifully presented, mid terraced, three bedroom, home could be the perfect first step onto the property ladder.

Step inside and there's an immediate sense of comfort. The bay-fronted living/dining room forms the heart of the home, a bright, welcoming space where natural light pours in throughout the day. It's somewhere that adapts effortlessly to the rhythm of everyday life, whether that's slow weekend mornings, evenings spent entertaining friends, or simply curling up and relaxing once the day is done.

The kitchen continues the home's practical and easy-going feel, offering generous worktop space and excellent storage without compromising on style. Beyond here, a rear lobby leads through to the spacious main bathroom, creating a layout that feels functional while still flowing naturally from room to room.

Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms provide flexibility that's increasingly valuable. Whether you need space for guests, home working, a nursery or simply somewhere to unwind, the rooms adapt easily as life changes. The current owners use the front bedrooms as a home office, highlighting just how versatile the home can be. The current owner has also boarded the loft space creating valuable extra storage.

Outside, the property continues to impress. The rear garden strikes a balance between relaxation and practicality, with space to dine outdoors, entertain in the warmer months or simply enjoy your own private outdoor retreat. A lawn softens the space beautifully, while large rear gates open up exciting potential for private off-road parking if desired, something that adds real long-term value and convenience.

This is a home that doesn't try too hard. It simply offers the things that matter most: light-filled spaces, flexibility, a fantastic location and the chance to make somewhere truly your own.

And for a first home, it's a very easy place to fall in love with.
