Adjacent is a well-proportioned family lounge enjoying delightful views over the garden, along with a refined formal dining room and an ideal home office, perfectly suited to contemporary working patterns.

The west wing of the home is rich in character and individuality. A magnificent library, currently utilised as a second office, is crowned by a unique domed ceiling and lined with bespoke carpentry, creating a truly atmospheric retreat. A spiral staircase descends to a distinctive cellar, housing the boiler alongside a storeroom and wine cellar, discreetly set behind two beautifully arched wooden doors.
