London, SW14

CHESTERTONS

A beautifully presented two-bedroom apartment with Thames views, a long lease, and excellent transport links, ideally positioned on Mortlake High Street. This attractive home offers a wonderful blend of character and contemporary living, benefitting from newly installed double glazing, a modern kitchen and bathroom, wooden flooring, and a lease in excess of 100 years.

The stylish kitchen is fitted with shaker-style units topped with wooden work surfaces, complemented by metro-tiled splashbacks and a classic butler sink — creating a smart and welcoming space with a modern finish.

The bright and spacious reception room features wooden flooring and ample space for both seating and dining. Two large windows draw in excellent natural light while offering charming views towards the River Thames. The principal bedroom is generously sized with space for wardrobes, and the second bedroom is ideal as a guest room, nursery, or home office.

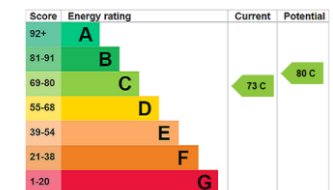

Residents enjoy access to a well-maintained communal courtyard perfect for relaxing outdoors and mingling with your neighbours — along with the added benefit of a large external storage cupboard, ideal for bicycles or additional storage.

Mortlake High Street is superbly located for access to the amenities of Barnes and East Sheen, including independent cafés, restaurants, pubs, and supermarkets on nearby White Hart Lane. Mortlake Station and Barnes Bridge Station are both within half a mile, providing excellent transport links into central London.

An excellent opportunity to acquire a charming and well-located home in a highly desirable riverside setting.
