A well-proportioned three bedroom period home lovingly restored to create comfort and style with an ideal layout for living and entertaining. A bright reception room boasts a dual aspect with French doors leading out to the courtyard garden, with a wood burner on a mosaic tiled hearth and hardwood floors. Whilst the kitchen/diner to the rear features a hand-crafted bespoke kitchen, an ideal space for family meals or entertaining guests. A ground floor w.c and utility room provides convenience whilst the upstairs has been re-modelled to provide a family bathroom independently accessed from the three double bedrooms.

The house features oak hardwood floors with inset tiles to the main living space / hall, with underfloor heating to the kitchen. There are double glazed windows throughout with fitted wardrobes in the bedrooms.

Weavers Court is in a sought after location, a short distance from multiple tube stations and bus routes such as Bethnal Green, Shoreditch High Street and Cambridge Heath Stations. The famous Columbia Road flower market and the vibrant Broadway Market are both within easy reach offering an array of restaurants, bars and shops as well as the green spaces of Victoria park.
