3 Ashville Street, Bridlington, YO16 4EP

A charming two-bedroom cottage-style home, forming part of a small and attractive development created from a former police station social club approximately 20 years ago. Offering a blend of character, comfort and practicality, the property provides well-proportioned accommodation arranged across two floors, complemented by useful storage and a pleasant mix of original and modern features. The accommodation includes a welcoming lounge, well-equipped kitchen, two comfortable bedrooms, a family bathroom and a downstairs WC. An appealing opportunity for a retired couple seeking a manageable home, a holiday retreat, or an investor looking for a residential letting opportunity.

The St. John's Street area is close to the town centre being a vibrant and convenient location. The area is served by Quay Academy (ages 3-11) and Bridlington School (ages 11-18). Nearby are convenience stores and supermarkets including Co-op, Aldi, Spar, and One Stop. Dining options feature a range of restaurants, including Chinese and Indian cuisine, as well as popular fish and chips and pizza takeaways. A nearby parade of shops on Quay Road offers a fruit and veg shop, butcher and hairdresser, ensuring all essentials are within easy reach.

Bridlington blends the best of coastal living with a warm, welcoming community spirit. Known as the lobster capital of Europe, the town's thriving harbour and fresh seafood heritage give it a character all its own. Its award-winning beaches, charming promenades and easy access to the rolling Yorkshire Wolds create an enviable backdrop for everyday life. With excellent schools, reliable transport links and a relaxed pace that appeals equally to families, professionals and retirees, Bridlington offers a lifestyle that feels both wholesome and wonderfully uncomplicated. It's the kind of place where children can grow up by the sea, neighbours still say hello, and every day feels just a little like a holiday.
