34 Tollsworth Way, Puckeridge, Ware, Hertfordshire, SG11 1UR

Offers In The Region Of £490,000

34 Tollsworth Way, Puckeridge, Ware, Hertfordshire, SG11 1UR

This extended and updated four-bedroom family home offers practical, well-presented living throughout. At its heart is a modern refitted kitchen and dining area, featuring integrated Smeg and Bosch appliances and complemented by a separate utility room. The living room includes a wood-burning stove and underfloor heating, creating a warm and comfortable space to relax, while a separate study—currently used as a store—adds valuable flexibility to the ground floor.

Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a main bedroom with fitted wardrobes and an en-suite. Bedroom three also benefits from fitted cupboards and wardrobes and there is a contemporary family shower room serving the remaining bedrooms.

Outside, the rear garden has been landscaped for low maintenance and outdoor dining. To the front, a block-paved driveway provides off-road parking for two vehicles. The property is conveniently located within easy reach of the village centre, offering access to local shops, amenities, and well-regarded schools.

Please note: The garage is not included in the sale and is owned by a neighbour.

Puckeridge is a highly sought-after village known for its strong community spirit and excellent amenities. This property is within walking distance of local shops, pubs, and the new coffee shop. Families will appreciate proximity to well-regarded schools, including Roger de Clare First School and Ralph Sadleir Middle School.

For commuters, the nearby A10 provides easy access to Ware, Hertford, and beyond, while St Margaret's and Ware train stations offer services into London Liverpool Street.
