An impressive four bedroom detached family home built by Wimpey Homes and situated in a sought after cul-de-sac within the ever popular Westwood Fields development. Occupying a prime position on the borders of Tilehurst and Purley on Thames, this exceptional property enjoys convenient access to highly regarded schools, local shops, regular bus services and the vibrant village of Pangbourne, which offers an excellent range of amenities, restaurants and independent retailers. Tilehurst railway station, providing direct links into central London, is within easy walking distance, while beautiful countryside and riverside walks can be found nearby in Sulham and along the Thames.

The spacious and well planned accommodation comprises an entrance hall, ground floor cloakroom, front aspect living room, separate study, and a generous kitchen dining room overlooking the rear garden. There is also a separate utility room and a conservatory providing an attractive additional reception space with views across the garden.

To the first floor are four well proportioned double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with a refitted en suite shower room, together with a modern family bathroom.

Further benefits include gas fired radiator central heating, UPVC double glazing and a security alarm system.

Externally, the property boasts a superb south facing rear garden which is fully enclosed and offers a high degree of privacy. The garden features a pond, mature hedging, extensive lawn, patio area and a useful storage shed attached to the house. Side access leads to an attractive front garden with established flower borders. A detached double garage benefits from two electrically operated roller doors and a side pedestrian door, while the driveway provides ample parking for several vehicles.

Offered to the market with the added advantage of no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial family home in one of the area's most desirable residential locations.
