The Street, Walberswick

A charming cottage in sight of the sea, situated in the heart of this renowned coastal village. Walberswick stands on the south bank of the River Blyth, just across the water from Southwold. A ferry operates from Southwold in the summer, cutting short a seven mile journey by road. Formerly a prosperous fishing village, nearly half of the houses in Walberswick today are holiday homes. The village has a thriving artistic community with regular exhibitions, two excellent village pubs, tea rooms and village hall.
