THE PROPERTY

The front door leads into an entrance hallway with stairs rising to the first floor and access to all ground floor accommodation. The kitchen is at the front of the house with a good variety of floor and wall mounted units and an integral electric oven and gas hob with extractor hood over, with space for additional appliances. The extended lounge/dining room is at the back of the house with a sliding door leading to the garden at the rear. This spacious room has plenty of space to accommodate a dining and sitting area, and benefits from built in shelving units.

Upstairs there are three bedrooms, two double rooms and a comfortable single with the double bedroom to the back enjoying views towards Allington Hill. The bedrooms are served by a bathroom with a white suite comprising of a WC, basin and shower over bath.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property there is a low maintenance area of garden with gravel and paving, some hedging and a useful outside cupboard which also houses the new boiler. The rear garden is accessed via the living room. Stone steps lead down to a paved patio area ideal for outside dining, with further steps down to a grass lawn with perennial shrubs and planting on both sides. There is a good sized storage shed with power and lighting. A pathway to the rear allows shared access to the garage block where there is also an additional dedicated parking space for number 44 and on-street parking is also available.

SITUATION

The property lies on the South Western edge of the town, with easy access to all the facilities. Bridport is a bustling and vibrant market town which has a history of rope making and is now a gateway to the Jurassic, World Heritage coastline at nearby West Bay. It has a variety of independent shops, supermarkets, public houses and restaurants catering for a range of tastes and excellent arts and music events. Bridport is conveniently placed for Dorchester and Weymouth to the east and Axminster to the west. Walking, water sports and riding opportunities are plentiful in the area. Communication links are good with road links along the A35 and mainline stations at Maiden Newton, Dorchester, Axminster and Crewkerne.
