Nestled in the popular Harthope Grove, Bishop Auckland, this charming mid-terrace house offers a wonderful opportunity for first-time buyers and young families alike. Built in 1981, this well-proportioned property spans approximately 850 square feet and features three spacious bedrooms, a comfortable reception room, and a well-appointed bathroom.

The home is situated on a quiet and popular street, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a peaceful residential area. With no onward chain, prospective buyers can move in swiftly and begin to personalise their new home. The property boasts delightful gardens to both the front and rear, with the rear garden being particularly noteworthy. It is generously sized, providing a private space perfect for children to play, outdoor dining, or even future landscaping projects. Additionally, a rear garage offers valuable off-road parking and extra storage, a rare find in this locality.

Inside, the layout is both practical and inviting, with ample room sizes throughout. While some modernisation could enhance the property further, it presents an excellent canvas for buyers eager to add their own touch and increase its value over time.

Conveniently located near local schools, shops, and transport links, this home combines accessibility with potential, making it an attractive and affordable option in a highly sought-after area. Early viewing is strongly advised, as properties of this nature tend to attract significant interest. Don't miss your chance to secure this delightful home!
