Location

Located in the historic village of Grampound, which lies in the beautiful valley of the River Fal. It was settled in prehistoric times and in the early medieval period the parish of Creed. Grampound grew after the Norman conquest as the main crossing place on the Fal, a focus for travellers and traders moving between west Cornwall and England. Grampound became one of the important towns in medieval Cornwall with a rich and vibrant history. Situated between the Cathedral city of Truro and newly regenerated town of St Austell. The nearby Roseland Peninsular and coastal area of St Mawes are within a short drive.

Directions

Upon entering Grampound from St Austell, travelling towards Truro, proceed down the hill, passing the church on your right hand side. The property is located on the right hand side, just before the turning right to Mill Lane.
