Offers over £325,000

Description

Well presented detached bungalow, fully renovated and extended over the last few years, providing a comfortable family home with space for extended family to stay or potential income source. Set on a generous plot with open field views off a quiet country no through road leading to Lynford Lakes in Thetford Forest. Situated in the charming hamlet of Ickburgh on the edge of Mundford in the picturesque County of Norfolk.

The bungalow boasts a spacious sunny lounge/ dining room with a cosy log burner for relaxing with the family. The attractive well equipped kitchen is served with some built-in appliances, a 1 1/2 bowl sink drainer with views and access to the side garden.

With three well proportioned bedrooms giving views and access to the rear garden, served with the convenience of a well fitted bathroom and cloakroom in the main house. With further well fitted shower room and bedroom in the extension.

Outside there is plenty of opportunity to enjoy peace and quiet in the private garden that wraps around the property on three sides. With covered seating areas providing space to take in the fresh air and local wildlife. The large stable/workshop offers opportunity to develop further with power and water available.

The shingle driveway provides plenty of parking for guests, friends and family alike.

The bungalow is well served with oil fired central heating and sealed unit UPVC windows and doors throughout, ensuring warmth and energy efficiency.

The bungalow gives a wonderful opportunity to live a tranquil lifestyle with plenty of woodland walks on the doorstep and still being in easy reach of local amenities and main line train station.

The large loft space may allow the new owners to extend further the accommodation and take advantage of field views. Take the chance to make this charming home your own.
