INTRODUCTION

No' 54 Southwick Road is situated in a popular residential area of Dalbeattie and within walking distance of the town centre. The property is a charming split-level cottage benefitting from two bedrooms, living room, kitchen and bathroom. In addition, there are garden grounds to the rear and a detached garage which has vehicular access via a shared track to the left of the terraced row.

The cottage has been neutrally decorated throughout providing a superb blank canvas for any buyer, which may suit a first-time buyer or those wishing to buy to rent.

Dalbeattie provides a wide range of essential services with a relatively newly constructed school catering for nursery through to secondary education. The town also boasts a wide range of retail and professional services, along with a medical practice and leisure facilities. In addition, the former Dalbeattie Primary School, only a short walk away, is currently being transformed into an activity centre which will be known as the Rocks and Wheels project, the plan is to regenerate this much-loved building and is expected to have a climbing wall, bouldering facilities, external pump track, café and community meeting spaces.

A wider range of shops, supermarkets and services can be found in the nearby town of Castle Douglas, with the regional centre of Dumfries offering the West of Scotland University Campus, a major new hospital and a range of high street shops, retail parks and large supermarkets.

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiast extremely well-catered for as there exist the ability to take both shooting and fishing locally. Given the diverse landscape along with the proximity to the coast and local lochs, the area offers unique walks, sailing, cycling and for the golfer there is an abundance of good local courses with the region boasting no fewer than twenty-nine courses, the closest being a short distance from the property. Dalbeattie also boasts one of the 7stanes world-class mountain biking centres within Dalbeattie Forest. The property is also in close proximity to the pretty coastal villages along the Solway Coast.

Communications to the area are much improved with the A75 trunk road providing quick access from the south via the M6 & M74. The ferry links to Northern Ireland run from Cairnryan at Stranraer. The international airports of Prestwick & Glasgow are within just over an hour's drive of the property.
