Phase 2 Now Available

CityRise are delighted to present the latest release of this highly anticipated off-plan development, located just minutes from Leeds City Centre.

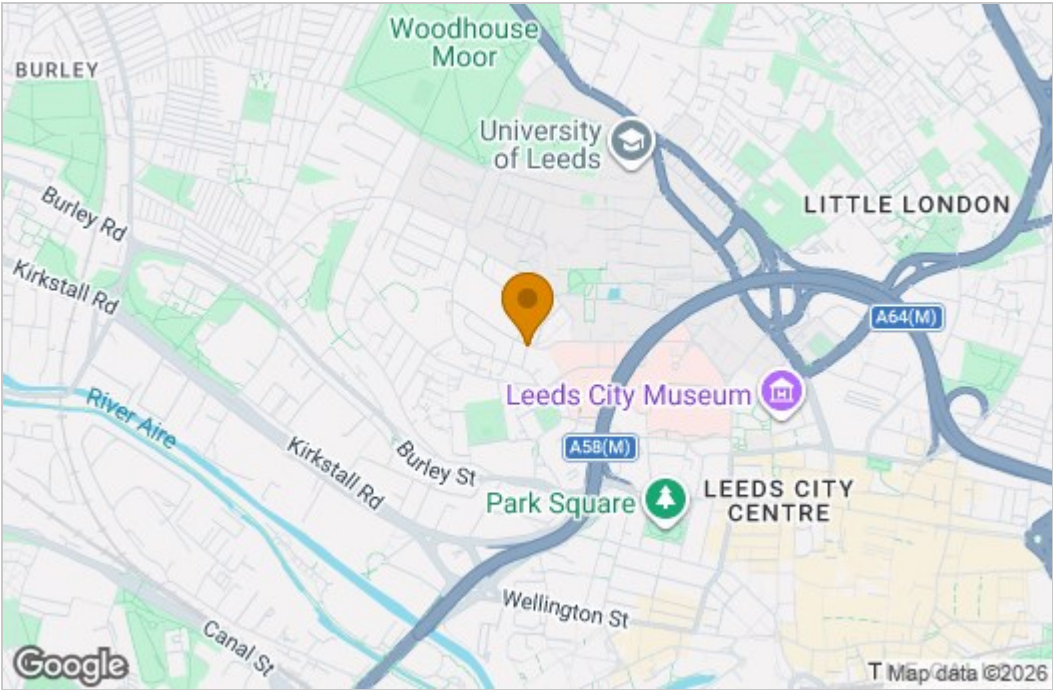

Following the successful launch of the first phase, Phase 2 is now available, offering a selection of stylish one and two-bedroom apartments designed with modern city living in mind. Each apartment has been thoughtfully designed with contemporary interiors, high-quality finishes and open-plan living spaces, creating attractive homes for a broad range of prospective tenants.

The development benefits from a strategically positioned location close to Leeds City Centre, providing convenient access to the city's extensive range of employment opportunities, universities, retail, leisure and entertainment facilities, as well as excellent transport links.

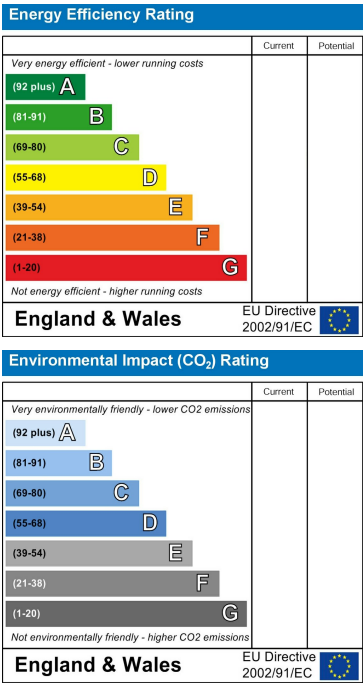

Leeds continues to be one of the UK's major regional cities, with a large population of young professionals, students and renters seeking well-located accommodation close to the city centre. This makes the development particularly well suited to investors looking to add a modern, tenant-focused property to their portfolio.
