

Rock Estates

26B Crowley Road, Needham Market, IP6 8BJ

£140,000

A well-presented one-bedroom quarter house situated in a quiet residential position on Crowley Road, ideal for first-time buyers or investment purchasers. The property offers well-proportioned accommodation including a comfortable sitting room, fitted kitchen, double bedroom, and bathroom, along with the benefits of double glazing and parking. Externally, the home enjoys a low-maintenance setting, making it perfect for modern, easy living.

Located in the charming market town of Needham Market, the property benefits from a strong sense of community alongside a wide range of everyday amenities. The town offers a selection of independent shops, cafés, public houses, takeaway restaurants, a post office, supermarket, library, and healthcare services all within easy reach.

Needham Market is particularly well regarded for its excellent transport links, with a railway station providing regular services to Ipswich, Bury St Edmunds, Cambridge, and connections to London Liverpool Street, as well as convenient access to the A14 for road travel.
