The Robins Burtle, Bridgwater, TA7 8NY

£395,000

A spacious, extended and individual modern semi-detached three/four bedroom home, tucked away in a quiet no-through lane within this desirable Somerset village.

Offering spacious and versatile accommodation ideally suited to modern family living, the property features a generous kitchen/dining room, a comfortable lounge, utility room, cloakroom and rear lobby to the ground floor. To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, together with a fourth single bedroom or home office and a family bathroom.

Further benefits include a modern air source heat pump, double glazed windows and doors, and a layout that combines practicality with comfort.

Externally, the property continues to impress. A gated driveway leads to an extensive rear parking area providing space for several vehicles, complemented by a substantial garage/workshop and separate garden store. Attractive gardens to both the front and rear provide excellent outdoor space for families, entertaining and relaxation.

The village enjoys a welcoming community atmosphere and benefits from a village hall together with the highly regarded Duck Inn public house and restaurant. Excellent schooling is available nearby while secondary education is provided by the well-respected Crispin Academy in Street.

Combining generous living space, excellent parking and workshop facilities with a peaceful village location, this is a wonderful family home offering the perfect balance of countryside living and accessibility.
