Property Introduction

Located just a short distance from Penzance, this impressive family home has been thoughtfully remodelled and enhanced to create a spacious, stylish and versatile home.

The property has been significantly improved with the addition of a generous 20ft conservatory, a practical and fully equipped utility/boot room and three contemporary bathrooms. Finished to an exceptional standard with great attention to detail, 'Easonwood' provides bright, modern living spaces that are perfectly suited to family life and entertaining alike.

The flexible accommodation comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms, one of which is currently used as a home office/study. Two generous double bedrooms benefit from en-suite shower rooms, while the remaining two bedrooms are served by a luxurious family shower room featuring a Jack-and-Jill vanity unit. Excellent storage is provided throughout the home.

Approached through double entrance gates and along a beautifully maintained private driveway, the property enjoys ample off-road parking, a garage, mature trees, and attractive landscaped gardens. A delightful stream meanders through the grounds, complete with a charming seating area and a peaceful bench, creating a truly private and picturesque setting.

Location

Tremethick Cross is ideally positioned within easy reach of Penzance town centre, where a comprehensive range of shops, restaurants, schools, and transport links can be found. The nearby village of Heamoor offers everyday conveniences, including a local shop, bakery and café, and a popular fish and chip shop. For those who enjoy the outdoors, there are wonderful countryside walks right on the doorstep, while the beautiful National Trust Trengwainton Garden is just moments away. Families will also appreciate the property's proximity to Heamoor Community Primary School and Mount's Bay Academy, making 'Easonwood' an exceptional choice for those seeking an outstanding home in one of West Cornwall's most desirable locations.
