SITUATION

Located on the northern edge of the popular village of Kentisbeare, this prime development site sits on mostly cleared land, formerly part of a dairy farm.

Kentisbeare is a well-regarded village with a local shop and post office, The Wyndham Arms pub, a primary school, church, and active village clubs. Set in the scenic Culm Valley with views of the Blackdown Hills, it's a sought-after rural location with excellent accessibility.

The nearby market towns of Tiverton, Wellington, and Cullompton offer a wide range of amenities. Junction 27 of the M5 is easily reached, and Tiverton Parkway station provides direct rail links to London Paddington.

The site is also within the catchment for the highly rated Uffculme School, which received an Outstanding rating from OFSTED in 2014.

DESCRIPTION

The former dairy farm buildings have been demolished and the site largely cleared, leaving an open plot with approved plans for four individually designed homes set around a central courtyard, including one detached property (plot) which is available separately.

The design combines traditional materials with barn-style elevations, thoughtfully echoing the character of the adjacent stone barns retained by the vendors.
