THE PROPERTY

Set behind a wide block-paved driveway providing extensive parking and access to a double garage, Wellington Manor presents an elegant red-brick façade with tall chimneys, projecting gables and a balanced frontage all of which are architectural hallmarks of its time.

The front door opens into a welcoming entrance hall positioned at the centre of the house, from which the ground floor accommodation radiates. The living room is a particularly impressive space which includes a glass atrium and extends to over 23 ft with excellent natural light and direct access to the rear terrace. Double doors open to a sitting area which in turns has steps down to the family room which provides a superb informal living space approaching 30 ft in length, designed for day-to-day living and opening naturally towards the gardens.

A separate media room of similar scale offers an ideal environment for cinema and leisure.

The kitchen is generously proportioned and includes a range of solid wall, floor and island cabinetry all set beneath a granite worksurface. There are a range of integrated appliances including Miele coffee machine, microwave and dishwasher while there is space for a range style cooker and American fridge freezer. The kitchen is arranged to accommodate both everyday dining and larger gatherings via the spacious dining area, as well as being supported by a utility room and additional ancillary spaces.

A gym and internal access to the double garage further enhance the practicality of the house. The separate office completes the ground floor accommodation, offering flexibility for home working.

The staircase rises to a central landing providing access to well-balanced bedroom accommodation. The principal bedroom suite is a stand-out feature of the house, incorporating a large bedroom, extensive dressing room and en suite facilities, creating a private and well-defined space occupying one wing of the first floor. There are a further three generous double bedrooms on this level, served by multiple bathrooms, and are complemented by a bedroom, which is currently used as a study. This is located to one side of the house, offering a quiet workspace.

The second floor provides additional flexible accommodation, arranged around a landing open to the stairwell below. There are two further bedrooms and a bathroom, together with a kitchenette, making this level particularly well suited for guests, older children or multigenerational living.

GARDENS & GROUNDS

The south facing gardens to Wellington Manor are a defining feature of the property. To the rear, a broad south facing terrace spans the width of the house, creating an excellent space for outdoor dining and entertaining. From here, steps descend through formal planting to a central garden feature, beyond which the grounds open into established lawned areas bordered by mature trees and specimen planting.

The gardens enjoy a high degree of privacy and have been thoughtfully arranged to provide structure and year-round interest, whilst there are elevated views back towards the house. The far end of the garden offers a secluded area for children's play, composting and garden storage. All in all, the plot totals approx. 0.93 acres.
