The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A rare opportunity to acquire this beautifully restored four-storey period property, just a short walk from the marina and enjoying breath-taking views over the Cleddau Estuary. Dating back to the mid-1800s, the home seamlessly blends original character with high-quality modern finishes.

Deceptively spacious throughout, the ground floor features an open-plan kitchen/living area with oak engineered flooring and French doors opening onto a generous balcony—perfect for relaxing, entertaining and taking in the waterside views. The contemporary kitchen is finished to a high standard, with an island, quartz worktops, a built-in electric oven, and gas hob.

The first floor offers two double bedrooms and a family bathroom, complete with marble tiles, a rain shower, double sink, and a freestanding clawfoot bath. Both the rear bedroom and the bathroom benefit from the estuary views. On the second floor, there is a further double bedroom with Velux windows opening up to views upriver.

The lower ground floor offers versatile space, including a living room with high ceilings, a feature fireplace, and French doors opening to the southeast-facing garden. There is also an additional bedroom and a shower/utility room, providing flexible accommodation ideal for guests, home working, or multi-generational living.

Externally, the home benefits from a beautifully landscaped tiered garden with patios and lawned areas, all enjoying the stunning views. Situated on a quiet, hedged lane, the property has a walled front garden offering potential for off-street parking. This unique home combines charm, space, and an exceptional coastal setting.

Neyland is a charming coastal town on the Cleddau Estuary, offering a relaxed waterside lifestyle. Famous for its marina, scenic walks, and stunning views, the town has shops, cafes, and a primary school, with larger nearby towns like Milford Haven, Haverfordwest and Tenby. There is easy access to coastal walks and Pembrokeshire's sandy beaches.
