THE HOUSE

9 Longmead Terrace is a beautifully presented three-bedroom modern townhouse arranged over four floors, situated on a peaceful, tree-lined street within the sought-after Bath Riverside development. Conveniently located close to the city centre, the property also benefits from private parking.

The contemporary kitchen is fitted with a wide range of wall and base units arranged along two sides, providing excellent storage. Integrated Siemens appliances include an induction hob, two ovens and a selection of built-in white goods, additionally included is a dishwasher, washing machine and dryer. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the dining area, a stylish space overlooking the rear garden. Full width glazed doors open completely to create an effortless connection between the indoor and outdoor living spaces during the warmer months.

Occupying the entire first floor, the spacious sitting room stretches from the front to the rear of the house. On the second floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms, served by a contemporary family bathroom. The top floor is dedicated to the impressive principal suite, comprising a generous bedroom and an en-suite bathroom, creating a private and relaxing retreat.

GARDEN & GROUNDS

The enclosed rear garden features an attractive lawn bordered by established shrubs and planting. A paved terrace directly outside the bi-fold doors provides an ideal space for al fresco dining and entertaining, while mature trees and fencing create a private, leafy backdrop. To the rear of the garden, a painted timber shed offers useful storage, complemented by an additional storage cupboard and a built-in garden bench. The garden enjoys a pleasant balance of open lawn and seating areas, making it a wonderful outdoor extension of the home.
