SITUATION: East Budleigh is a highly desirable and historic village in East Devon, famously the birthplace of Sir Walter Raleigh. Steeped in charm, it features a striking church, thatched cottages, and a vibrant village centre. Once a thriving market town and port on the River Otter, it is now a sought-after place to live with a strong sense of community. The village lies just two miles from the coastal town of Budleigh Salterton, offering a pebbled beach, shops, restaurants, and recreational facilities, while sandy beaches at Exmouth are only six miles away. Nestled in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, East Budleigh provides easy access to Woodbury Common for walking, cycling, horse riding, and wildlife. Exeter, approximately 11 miles distant, offers excellent schooling, shopping including Princesshay and John Lewis, cultural attractions, and a renowned university. The village has a general store, pub, primary school, and convenient bus links to Budleigh Salterton, Exmouth, and Sidmouth.
