IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'll be enjoying the grand proportions of the period from front to back, your front reception comes in at a generous 170 square feet, with that box bay window letting in loads of natural light, soft grey carpet underfoot and a handsome vintage hearth and mantel serving as a fine centrepiece. Your first bedroom is next door, a generous double with direct access to your garden, a low maintenance mix of patio and gravel, secluded by screening greenery.

Back inside, and past a handy spare WC, for your dual aspect kitchen and conservatory. Totalling a generous 200 square feet, a large dining area gives way to facing flanks of glossy black units and slate style floor tiles. Dark quartz effect work surfaces and a full suite of integrated appliances lead to a set of vintage patio doors, with transom windows and stained glass, in turn giving onto your conservatory, so you can enjoy the garden all year round. Upstairs all three bedrooms are solid doubles (no box rooms here) and both bathrooms sit right off the hallway.

Outside and, as noted, Leytonstone tube is just five minutes on foot for the Central line and direct fourteen minute runs to Liverpool Street, for a door to door City commute of twenty minutes. Tottenham Court Road, for the West End, is just nine minutes further. If you're staying local then High Road Leytonstone runs right past the end of your street, just a few minutes from your new front door for all your day to day amenities as well as much loved eateries like Homies On Donkeys - for the best tacos this side of the Atlantic.

WHAT ELSE?

- If it's nature you're craving, you can be exploring the endless woodlands and open greenery of Epping Forest and Wanstead Flats in just ten minutes. You'll forget you're in London.
- You're spoilt for choice when it comes to a new local, but be sure to check out the Heathcote & Star, less than ten minutes away it's a much loved favourite with regular events, delicious food and drink and the biggest beer garden in Leytonstone.
- Francis Road is well worth the fifteen minute stroll for its renowned range of independent cafes and coffee spots.
