IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Warner homes are cherished for their blend of character, practicality, and history. Built with craftsmanship that has stood the test of time, they offer generous layouts and solid construction, paired with enduring charm. This maisonette greets you with its own private front door—a small detail that makes a big difference. Head upstairs to the first floor, where the home opens out.

The reception room stretches to 190 sq ft, filled with natural light from a striking triple window set. Engineered oak flooring flows seamlessly through the property, while the chimney breast has been thoughtfully updated with built-in alcove shelving painted in deep charcoal and a recessed display nook for a clean, modern touch.

The double bedroom, a comfortable 115 sq ft, feels calm and restful with its neutral palette, soft carpet underfoot, and a leafy garden outlook. On the landing opposite, bespoke cupboards provide smart storage, making the most of every inch of space.

The bathroom is beautifully finished with a curved bath and shower, surrounded by white chevron tiling. A floating vanity adds a contemporary edge, while grey geometric floor tiles and a built-in cupboard with a muted pink door bring character and warmth.

In the kitchen, design and function come together beautifully. Reclaimed parquet flooring and an exposed brick chimney breast set the tone, while a suite of basalt blue cabinets with brushed brass handles conceal integrated appliances. A sunken Belfast sink completes the look, with twin windows framing leafy views of the garden below.

Outside, your private stretch of Trulawn is bookended by patio areas, giving you versatile space to relax and entertain as you please.

The location adds even more appeal. Walthamstow Village, with its award-winning cafés, restaurants, and bars, is just a short bus ride away (the 58 stops around the corner). Lea Bridge Road's shops and cafés are closer still, and for green space, Leyton Jubilee Park is just eight minutes on foot.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I love living in Walthamstow – it's got such a great mix of things going on. Saturdays are my favourite, with the market in Lloyd Park full of fresh food, handmade bits, and plenty of friendly faces. The new Soho Theatre has brought amazing shows right to our doorstep, and if I fancy a pint, the Blackhorse Beer Mile breweries are perfect for a wander. When I need some fresh air, the Walthamstow Wetlands are just a short stroll away – all that greenery makes you completely forget you're in London. Plus, with brilliant transport links, it's so easy to hop on the Tube or Overground and be in Central London in no time at all."
