Tucked away at the top of Milton Crescent—a peaceful cul-de-sac on the rural fringe of Brixham—this beautifully maintained two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow offers modern, comfortable living in a wonderfully tranquil location.

Set behind a pretty front garden, laid mostly to lawn with colourful, established borders providing privacy from the roadside, the property also benefits from driveway parking leading to an excellent-sized garage with coveted integral access.

Inside, the home opens into a welcoming hallway and an impressive open-plan kitchen/diner. This light, bright and contemporary space is ideal for social living, fitted with an integrated oven and gas hob, a dual sink, and generous worktop and cupboard space. The spacious lounge forms the heart of the home—beautifully presented and filled with natural light. From here, sliding doors lead into an appealing rear sun room, creating a superb additional living area with direct access into both the garage and the rear garden.

There are two well-appointed double bedrooms, each enjoying a pleasant, private outlook over the front and rear gardens respectively. A centrally positioned wet-room style shower room provides ease of use and completes the accommodation. The rear garden is a secure and sunny haven—large enough to enjoy and personalise, yet easily manageable. A raised timber deck captures a delightful elevated view across Torbay, making it a perfect spot for morning coffee or evening relaxation.

Further benefits include gas central heating, UPVC double glazing, and the valuable advantage of being offered to the market with no onward chain. A fantastic opportunity to secure a modern, move-in-ready bungalow in one of Brixham's quietly sought-after residential pockets. Early viewing is highly recommended.
