Tibbermore, PH1 1QJ

- Detached country cottage
- Impressive 32-foot living room
- Characterful exposed stonework
- Separate utility room
- Generous garden grounds
- Three generous bedrooms
- Separate living/dining area
- Large upper-floor office
- Scope for extending
- Large garage and ample parking

Willow Cottage is a substantial three-bedroom detached home in the peaceful village of Tibbermore, offering generous and highly flexible accommodation alongside attractive garden grounds, extensive parking and a large double garage.

The standout space is the impressive main living room, extending to over 32 feet in length and featuring exposed stone walls that add character to its excellent proportions. A second living/dining area provides further space for everyday family life and entertaining, with an adjoining kitchen enjoying a pleasant outlook over the front garden. A separate utility room and WC add welcome practicality. The bedroom accommodation is equally generous, with three well-proportioned bedrooms arranged on the ground floor, including an especially spacious principal room measuring almost 18 feet in length. These are served by a family bathroom, while useful storage is incorporated throughout the layout. Adding another dimension to the property is the upper-floor office/attic room, an unusually generous and versatile space. Outside, Willow Cottage sits within attractive lawned grounds with a broad driveway providing ample off-street parking and access to the substantial garage. Altogether, this is a characterful and exceptionally spacious home offering considerable flexibility in an appealing rural setting.
