Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Situated within easy walking distance of Leek town centre, this well-presented three-bedroom end-terrace property offers spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors. Combining practicality and an excellent location, it is an ideal purchase for first-time buyers, couples or investors looking for a property with strong rental potential.

The ground floor welcomes you into a generous lounge/diner, a bright and versatile living space that comfortably accommodates both seating and dining areas. Stairs rise to the first floor from the lounge, while the room flows seamlessly into the extended kitchen at the rear of the property.

The well-appointed kitchen offers a good range of fitted cabinetry and worktop space. From here, there is direct access to the enclosed private rear yard.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms, including a spacious bedroom to the front aspect which benefits from built-in storage. The family bathroom is particularly generous in size and features both a separate bath and shower, offering practicality for modern living.

Occupying the entire second floor is an impressive double bedroom, enhanced by a vaulted ceiling and skylight window that creates a bright and airy space. This versatile room could equally serve as a principal bedroom, guest suite or home office.

Overall, the property has been well maintained and is ready to move straight into, although some areas may benefit from cosmetic updating over time, allowing buyers to put their own stamp on the home without the need for immediate renovation.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

Why We Love This House!

We love this home because it's a fantastic first step onto the property ladder or a smart investment in the heart of Leek. It's well presented throughout, so you can move straight in, enjoy the space from day one and update it to your own taste over time.
