This superb, newly-built apartment is located within a sought-after residential block, featuring concierge, residents' gym, allocated underground parking and lift access.

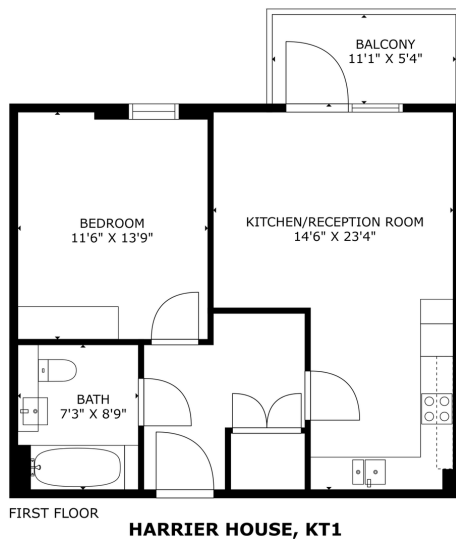

Offering beautifully designed internal space, this fantastic apartment boasts a spacious open-plan living space, perfect for relaxing and entertaining. The reception room opens onto a deep private balcony, overlooking a stunning herb-filled communal garden.

The courtyard garden with play areas for young families, is enjoyed by the residents particularly in warmer months and the entire block has a fantastic feeling of community. A dedicated concierge is based within the development five days a week, offering a personal and friendly service to residents. The apartments are predominantly lived in by home owners and there is a well-balanced mix of professionals, young families, and mature residents. The development is extremely well run and managed, with residents actively involved in decision-making and budget allocation for the services provided.

The apartment is immaculate, with a kitchen featuring integrated Smeg appliances, underfloor heating, and double glazing throughout. The hallway also benefits from additional built-in storage space.

Located within an easy walk to both Surbiton (with express services to Vauxhall and Waterloo) and Kingston train stations, the location provides excellent access to central London, the River Thames, Richmond & Bushey Parks. There is a fantastic selection of supermarkets, local restaurants, cafés, and shops nearby.
